Gehl Company Donates Compact Loader and Attachments to Washington County Fairgrounds

WEST BEND, WISCONSIN – Gehl Company, a leading manufacturer of compact equipment used in construction and agriculture applications, lent a helping hand by donating a Gehl AVANTAGE™ Compact Loader complete with a trailer and equipped with multiple attachments to help the Washington County Fair Park with their events and maintenance at the fairgrounds.

“We are pleased to be able to assist the Washington County Fair Park with the Gehl Equipment,” said Dan Keyes, Gehl VP of Sales and Marketing. “We have the right equipment to help the Fair Park prepare for the upcoming events and are proud to be a part by assisting the surrounding communities.”

Attachments donated included several buckets and powered attachments including; earth augers, aerator/seeders, rotary broom, backhoe, snow blower, trencher and more.

“When the Fair Park was opened in 1999, Gehl Company visited with Fair Park officials and entered into a partnership to supply the Fair Park with needed equipment,” said Sandy Lang, Fair Park Deputy Director. “This partnership has grown stronger over the years, which is evident by this new generous donation.”
